In Clerk Robertson's Office.
In Clerk Robertson's office yesterday the following deed was recorded:
Deed dated September 7, 1893, between William J. Graham and Maria Vance, transferring property on Twenty-sixth street; $325.

A marriage license was granted to Thomas S. Scott and Lydia Dailey, of Washington, Pa.

Mt. de Chantal Academy.
The attractions of fair week are much enhanced by the return on most of the trains, of the young ladies of Mt. de Chantal, with bright eyes and lots of color in their faces after the long vacation. Among them are a large number of applicants for admission, some from far off states of the Union. For the coming scholastic year it is expected that there will be nine "sweet girl graduates," a larger number than for many years.

Rt. Rev. Bishop Donahue, who takes a deep interest in the Academy, was fortunate enough, while in the east, to secure funds to be given as prizes for excellence in special subjects during the scholastic year, and it is confidently expected that this fact will give a new stimulus to the industry of the pupils.

The directors and managers are also considering the laying off of golf links, in addition to the lawn tennis courts. All together, the outlook is exceedingly bright for the coming year.

PERSONS DESIROUS of securing thorough instruction and suitable hours for their lessons will please call or address Henry J. Arhens, Director, on Saturday, between the hours of 10 to 12, 2 to 4, and 6 to 8. Instruction resumed in all branches of the Wheeling Conservatory of Music, No. 25, Fifteenth Street, Sunday, September 12.

RANK THROW-DOWN.

"Jim" Crawford is a Very sore Individual these days.

HIS RESIGNATION HANDED IN

AS A MEMBER OF FIRST DISTRICT DEMOCRATIC CONGRESSIONAL COMMITTEE—THIS ACTION WAS INDUCED BY THE EFFORTS OF SOME OF THE LOCAL LEADERS OF THE PARTY—MR. CRAWFORD TALKED PLAINLY TO THE COMMITTEE AND CANDIDATE.

A hot man under the collar is James D. Crawford, who was elected at the Weston convention as the Ohio county member of the Democratic congressional committee of the First district, and who had the chairmanship of this committee in view when the committee should meet for organization in Wheeling. The committee met here on Wednesday, and as previously stated, Melville D. Post was elected chairman.

For some time previous to the meeting there was a strong effort to throw Crawford down, but he held on until the committeemen met in the Windsor parlors Wednesday afternoon, when, after seeing how the wind blew, Mr. Crawford handed in his resignation. The vacancy was filled by electing Harry B. Gartley, of the Sixth ward.

Before resigning, Mr. Crawford used some strong language, and called the attention of Mr. Blair and the committeemen to the fact that it was through his efforts, to a great extent, that the Ohio county delegation went solidly for Blair at the convention. In reply, it was told the Madison district Democrat that Ohio's votes weren't necessary for Mr. Blair's selection, but Mr. Crawford quoted figures to the contrary.

After more heated discussion, Mr. Crawford resigned. After the vacancy was filled, the committee proceeded to elect Mr. Post, who wasn't a member of the committee. Crawford and his friends are hot and claim the Post selection had been cut and dried weeks ago. They say the committee displayed poor judgment in not, at least, selecting a member of the committee as chairman. Mr. Crawford's friends seemingly forget that the candidate usually names the chairman, and often he is not a member of the committee, so the committee did not take unprecedented action in naming Mr. Post, who is not a member of the committee.

When an Intelligencer reporter called at the Windsor Wednesday evening, the secretary of the committee, in detailing such of the proceedings as he cared to have published, did not mention the episode of Crawford's enforced resignation. It was a little unpleasantness that Mr. Blair no doubt wished kept under cover. Of course he did not for an instant imagine that his own party organ, the Register, would mention the matter—but it did, and the incident bids fair to become the cause of dissensions in the party in this county that will be of no inconsiderable extent.

The Linsly Institute.

For the last few days Principal John M. Birch has been at his office in the Linsly Institute building enrolling new students. An unusually large number have presented themselves for entrance and the prospects for next year are more favorable than usual. The school merits the liberal patronage of the citizens of this city, for strenuous efforts are constantly being made to preserve the high standard of the institution. Principal Birch can be seen to-day and to-morrow at the school building, between 10:30 and 12, where all necessary arrangements can be made.

Musical Instruction.

Edward Blumenberg will resume his instruction in Violin, Piano and Theory at his residence, 68 Ohio street, (near steel bridge), on Monday, September 12. All persons are requested to call early, in order to arrange hours. Branch studio, Clark street, Martin's Ferry, Ohio.

SCHOOL SUITS—THE HUB.

We're Out-Talked Often, Out-done Never.

Now for School...

The news of to-day concerns school necessities and, of course, school clothing in particular, for to-day we will suspend comment on our elaborate preparations for the fall needs of adults and become simply outfitters for the boys. The outfitting of the school boy may be as inexpensive or costly as you please. We would not be a store for the people unless we were fitted to supply all classes of people. But it is especially in meeting the demands of the slender purse that we claim our proudest superiority. It is to the slender purse that high qualities are most important if within reach. We sell nothing but high qualities, and we put them within reach. More boys' clothing here than the combined stocks of any three clothing houses in the city.
